THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Prelude Wachet auf, Ruft uns die Stimme - J.S. Bach

Opening Prayers

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

Hymn 88 Come, You Long-expected Jesus

1. Come, thou long-expected Jesus,
born to set thy people free;
from our fears and sins release us;
let us find our rest in thee.
2. Israel's strength and consolation,
hope of all the earth thou art;
dear desire of every nation,
joy of every longing heart.
3. Born thy people to deliver;
born a child and yet a King;
born to reign in us forever:
now thy gracious kingdom bring.
4. By thine own eternal Spirit,
rule in all our hearts alone:
by thine all-sufficient merit,
raise us to thy glorious throne.

Collect of the Day

Officiant Let us pray.

The community prays silently.

Almighty God,
give us grace to cast away the works of darkness
and put on the armour of light,
now in the time of this mortal life
in which your Son Jesus Christ
came to us in great humility,
that on the last day,
when he shall come again in his glorious majesty
to judge both the living and the dead,
we may rise to the life immortal;
through him who lives and reigns
with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

The Readings

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.
(Isaiah 64:1-9)

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence - as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil - to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence! When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. Yet, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord, and do not remember iniquity forever. Now consider, we are all your people.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

Psalm

(Psalm 80:1-7, 16-18)

Hear, O Shepherd of Israel leading Joseph like a flock;
shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim,

In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh,
stir up your strength and come to help us.

Restore us, O God of hosts;
show the light of your countenance
and we shall be saved.

Refrain* Lord, let us turn to you.

O Lord God of hosts;
how long will you be angered despite the prayers of your people?

You have fed them with the bread of tears;
you have given them bowls of tears to drink.

You have made us the derision of our neighbours,
and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

Restore us, O God of hosts;
show the light of your countenance
and we shall be saved.

Refrain* Lord, let us turn to you.

Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand,
the son of man you have made so strong for yourself.

And so will we never turn away from you;
give us life, that we may call upon your Name.

Restore us, O God of hosts;
show the light of your countenance
and we shall be saved.

Refrain Lord, let us turn to you.

Reader A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Church in Corinth. (1 Corinthians 1:3-9)

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind - just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you - so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gospel

Reader A Reading from the Gospel According to Mark.
(Mark 13:24-37)

Jesus said, "In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven. From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

God of power and might tear open the heavens and come down quickly to this weary world. Hear our prayers for everyone in need.

A brief silence

We pray for the ministries we share in Christ's name. Open our hearts to your call for justice, peace, and healing. Attune us to the needs of the world as you draw near. We pray for Todd, our Bishop; Preston, our Rector; and for all faith communities in our neighbourhood. Give us a common vision for mission and ministry, and the commitment to work in cooperation with others.

Reader Hear us, O God.
People Your mercy is great.

We pray for this planet in need of restoration: for devastated habitats, polluted waters, thawing ice masses, blazing fires, swelling floods, and long-lasting droughts. Renew the face of the earth and our relationship to it.

Reader Hear us, O God.
People Your mercy is great.

We pray for all people who care for others in our community and around the world. Fill them with compassion and the power to respond with justice for those who are oppressed, with welcome for those who are excluded, and with relief for those who suffer.

Reader Hear us, O God.
People Your mercy is great.

We pray for people who are in crisis as the seasons change: for those without homes facing severe weather; for those who are unemployed or underemployed; and for those in poverty or facing food insecurity. Receive their burdens, sustain their bodies, and ease their minds.

Reader Hear us, O God.
People Your mercy is great.

We pray for people in our families and our parish who live with depression, anxiety, chronic pain, addiction, and other invisible illnesses including all who have asked for our prayers, naming them aloud, or remembering them silently. (A time of silence). Ease their suffering and support them when they struggle.

Reader Hear us, O God.
People Your mercy is great.

We give thanks for the lives and witness of those who died while waiting for justice, peace, or healing, those whose names we know, and those whose names are known to you. Sustain all who still yearn for the completion of your redeeming work.

Reader Hear us, O God.
People Your mercy is great.

Draw near to us, O God, and receive our prayers for the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ. AMEN.

Hymn 89

O Come, O Come Emmanuel

1. O come, O come, Emmanuel,
and ransom captive Israel
that mourns in lonely exile here
until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.
2. O come, O Wisdom from on high,
who orders all things mightily;
to us the path of knowledge show,
and teach us in her ways to go.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

3. O come, O come, great Lord of might,
who to your tribes on Sinai's height
in ancient times once gave the law,
in cloud and majesty and awe.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
shall come to you, O Israel.

Christmas gift for our Newcomer family Once again, St John's has said yes to providing a gift basket for our latest newcomer family: James and Esperance and their two children Cedric and Ariane. Some of you may have met Esperance and the children at Pancake Supper earlier this year (before everything closed down)

Exciting news for them is that James has a job in Cambridge at Permacon and that they are expecting twins in April!! (They have found a three-bedroom townhouse for January in the same area, so kids will not have to change schools!)

Our plan is to provide a couple of gifts to be wrapped, but mostly to give them gift cards that they can use as most needed.

If you would like to contribute to this, your donation can be sent to the church (cash or cheque) marked clearly for "refugee Christmas gift". Cheques should be written to The Church of St John the Evangelist and "refugee Christmas gift" put on the memo line. This way you will get credit for your tax receipt and we will easily be able to get the money to purchase gift cards.

OR Contact Syd Reginato (reginatosyd@gmail.com 226 988 3627) or David Whitfield (davidswhit@gmail.com 519 579 5543) for more information on how you can contribute to this gift.
