Today's lessons:

Acts 10:44-48 When Peter talks to a Roman soldier and his family about Jesus Christ, he witnesses how they receive the Holy Spirit. Then Peter realizes that the Holy Spirit comes not only to Jews like himself, but also to Gentiles.

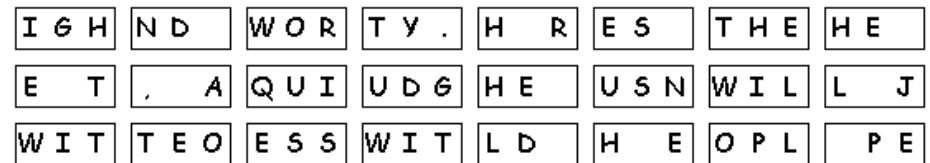

Psalms 98 This psalm calls us to join in the praise of the Lord that is already going on in his creation.

1 John 5:1-6 Through faith we are God's children, and we show our love for God by obeying the commandments that he has given for the good of all his children.

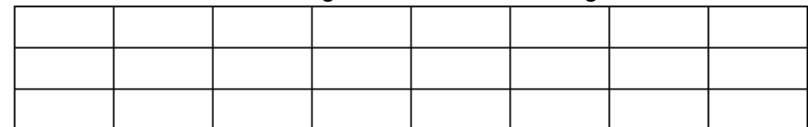

John 15:9-17 On the evening before his death Jesus explains to his disciples that although he will be taken away from them, he will always be their friend. Actually, his death is an expression of that. And keeping his commandment to love one another will prove their love for him.
