

THE CELEBRATION OF THE LORD'S PASSION

Good Friday
March 29, 2024

Welcome to the Church of St. John the Evangelist. Thank you for worshipping with us. Whether you are a first-time visitor, a faithful parishioner, or a returning friend, please know that you always have a place at God's table. As you enter today, may the gathering of this community strengthen you to take God's compassion and peace to a world in need of both.

THE LITURGY OF THE PASSION AT TEN O'CLOCK

Book of Alternative Services

The Ministry of the Word

Presider All we like sheep have gone astray;
we have turned every one to his own way,

People And the Lord has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.

Presider Christ the Lord became obedient unto death,
People Even death on a cross.

Presider Almighty God,
All our heavenly Father,
We have sinned
In thought and word and deed;
we have not loved you
with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours
as ourselves.
We pray you of your mercy,
forgive us all that is past,
and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
to the glory of your name. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

The community prays silently.

Then follows the Collect of the Day.

People Amen.

The Passion of our Lord according to John

Antiphon:

Glory be to you, O God, for your love poured out for us!

The image shows a musical score for an antiphon. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble clef staff. The music is in a simple, plainsong style.

Sermon

A silence for reflection follows.
